- Identifies standards of care in medical malpractice cases
- Determines plaintiff’s future medical needs and associated costs

LIFE CARE PLANNING
Life care plans are developed for individuals with injuries or chronic conditions requiring complex long-term health care services and management throughout a lifetime. This document provides an organized, concise plan estimating reasonable and necessary (and reasonably certain to be necessary) current and future healthcare needs with associated cost and frequency of goods and services.

MEDICAL COST ANALYSIS
Medical cost analysis is used to identify the value of a claim through reviewing medical records and researching future treatment for the reasonable and customary cost in a client’s geographical area for settlement. This analysis is a valuable tool for setting reserves, determining settlement exposure and deciding the best time to settle.
