

HNBA MID-YEAR CONFERENCE - NEW ORLEANS

HNBA HOSTS AN AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION COMMISSION ON HISPANIC LEGAL RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES HEARING IN NEW ORLEANS

On March 11th, during the annual Mid-Year conference in New Orleans, the HNBA hosted a hearing conducted by the ABA Commission on Hispanic Legal Rights and Responsibilities, which focused on law student experiences. Natacha Carbajal, HNBA's National Mentoring Chair; Edward Carlson, HNBA Law Student Division President; Barbara Barreno, National Law Student Association President and Sonji Patrick, Latino Justice PRLDEF Education Director, testified.

We thank ABA President Steve Zack, Commission Chair Cesar Alvarez, Director Aracely Munoz Petrich and Professor Jenny Rivera for their visionary leadership and dedication to the Hispanic Community and for providing HNBA law students an opportunity to be heard.
