

SELF-REPRESENTED LITIGANT PETITION FOR 102 DIVORCE (NO MINOR CHILDREN) WITH REQUEST FOR INCIDENTAL RELIEF

You may use these forms ONLY if ALL of these are true:

- You and your spouse do not have any children under age 18, regardless of who the biological father is, that were born or adopted during your marriage;
- You or your spouse is not currently pregnant;
- You and your spouse are still living together, or are living separate and apart, but have not yet lived apart for the one hundred eighty (180) days;
- You or your spouse currently live in Louisiana;
- Your spouse is not in prison;
- Your spouse is not a servicemember on active duty in the U.S. Military;
- You and your spouse are not in a “covenant marriage” (If you have a covenant marriage, then you would have agreed to pre-marriage counseling and a longer time for living separate and apart. You would have also completed a “Declaration of Intent” and filed it with your marriage certificate.)

BEFORE YOU START

If you can, try to find a lawyer to help you first. This is very important if domestic violence is an issue. Divorces in domestic violence situations have important deadlines and certain benefits that affect when and how you file a case in court. Some benefits that may be affected if you file this form rather than a divorce for domestic violence situations may include limitations on spousal support, community property, and a lengthier time frame to obtain your divorce. Again, it is in your best interest to find a lawyer to help you.

This Article 102 Divorce can be filed before you and your spouse have lived separate and apart for the required length of time, which is 180 days if you do not have minor children under age 18 born or adopted during the marriage. Filing this divorce affects community property by “terminating” the community at the time the case is filed. That means new property or debts either spouse acquires while waiting for divorce will not be considered community property. It is possible to ask the court for “exclusive use and occupancy” of the home or other property while waiting the required time if you and your spouse do not agree who should have the right to use the family’s property.

You will be filing your divorce as a “self-represented litigant.” That means you are handling your own case without a lawyer. As the person suing for divorce, you are the “Petitioner.” Your spouse is the “Defendant.” All the forms you need to file for a divorce are part of this forms packet or they are mentioned in the instructions. These forms assume that your spouse will not challenge or respond to the divorce. The name for this is an “uncontested” divorce.

HOW TO COMPLETE THE FORMS

Read instructions all the way through before starting.

1. Decide in which court you must file your case. If you file your case in the wrong court, then you might lose the filing fees you paid. If the case accidentally goes forward in the wrong parish, your divorce will not be valid, and you will not be legally divorced.
You can only file your divorce case in:
 - The parish in which you are currently “domiciled” (which means where you live and where your permanent/legal home is); OR
 - The parish in which your spouse is domiciled; OR
 - The parish where you and your spouse last lived together as a married couple.
2. Consider how you will serve your divorce papers on your spouse. “Serve” means the way you are required by law to get certain legal papers to your spouse on the other side of your case. If you and your spouse agree about getting a divorce, you can ask your spouse to “waive” service of process and other legal delays. Getting a waiver will make the process go faster. Your spouse must sign a waiver form before a notary. If your spouse will not waive service and he/she lives in Louisiana, you must ask the court to have the Sheriff serve him/her at home or work. If your spouse will not waive service and he/she lives in another state, you will have to use the “Long Arm” process to serve your spouse (more instructions below).

- 3. Figure out your case “filing fees.” Call the Clerk at the Court for the court where you plan to file your case. Ask how much it costs to file for divorce. If you can pay the court fees, get your payment ready. Find out what kind of payment the Clerk of Court will accept. For example, find out if you can use a money order, a credit card, etc. If you cannot afford to pay the court costs to file your case, you can fill out an “IN FORMA PAUPERIS AFFIDAVIT” or “IFP” (bit.ly/in-forma-pauperis). The IFP asks the court to delay (but not eliminate) paying the cost of filing and other court fees. You may still have to pay fees at the end of the case. The court could also order your spouse to pay them, or the two of you to split the costs, but you must ask for the payment arrangement you want in your petition. If required, fill out the IFP but do not sign it yet.

NOTE: It is common that the clerks at the Clerk of Court’s office where you plan to file your divorce can serve as a notary for these documents. Call the Clerk’s office in advance of filing to see if this service is available.
- 4. Get your petition ready to file. Fill in the top part (called the “caption”). Fill in all blanks on the pages marked “(1a - PETITION)” and “(1b – VERIFICATION),” but do not sign yet. Find a notary, ask about their fees, and schedule an appointment. (Learn more about notaries here: bit.ly/la-notaries.) Bring your Photo ID and your original, unsigned documents to your notary appointment. If you are filing the “IFP,” bring an adult witness that can speak to your financial situation to your appointment as well. Sign the VERIFICATION (and IFP, if required) in front of the notary. Make at least one (1) copy of your completed PETITION.
- 5. File your petition with the court. Bring these with you to the Clerk of Court’s Office where you will file your case: filing fees or IFP, your copy of the PETITION, all the original pages marked with “1a” and “1b” at the bottom, and the Rule to Show Cause Setting Hearing on Incidental Matters (marked at the bottom as “2-RULE TO SHOW CAUSE on INCIDENTAL MATTERS”). Go to the Civil Department and tell the staff that you do not have a lawyer, and that you want to file your divorce. Ask the Clerk of Court to “clock stamp” AND write the docket number of your case on your copy of the PETITION. The court will fill out the 2-RULE TO SHOW CAUSE on INCIDENTAL MATTERS setting a hearing date. You must serve a notice of this court hearing date on your spouse.

NOTE: You will need your docket number and the date you filed your petition for other documents you file in your case. Keep your copy of the Petition for Divorce in a safe place.
- 6a. If your spouse is willing to waive service of process, ask the Clerk of Court’s office for a “certified copy” of your Petition when you file. Hand or mail your spouse the certified copy of your divorce, along with the “Sworn Affidavit of Waiver of Service and Process,” which is marked “(3a – WAIVER).” He/She will need to find a notary and sign the WAIVER in the notary’s presence, then return the waiver back to you or file it directly with the Clerk of Court. If your spouse doesn’t file it for you, you must file the WAIVER with the Clerk of Court. After the WAIVER is signed and notarized, then you must wait one hundred eighty (180) days without a reconciliation before moving on to Step 7 below.

NOTE: For a definition of reconciliation, go to <https://louisianalawhelp.org/resource/divorce-dictionary/BE7390C6-171C-4EB0-8A18-D9C5F50C14F5>.
- 6b. If regular service is required on your spouse and your spouse lives in Louisiana, you must provide your spouse’s information at the end of the PETITION. Check back with the Clerk of Court’s office about 1-2 weeks after you have filed your case to see if the Sheriff served your spouse. Once the Clerk of Court’s office tells you that your spouse has been served, you must wait at least three hundred sixty-five (365) days from the date your spouse was served and without a reconciliation before moving on to Step 7 below.
- 6c. If regular service is required on your spouse and your spouse lives in another state, ask the Clerk of Court for a “certified copy” of your Petition and a “Citation for Long Arm Service” when you file. Have the certified copy of the Petition delivered to your out-of-state spouse at his/her physical address either by United States Postal Service certified mail or a commercial delivery service (like FedEx or UPS). You must have a return receipt or proof of delivery to submit to the court. Once you receive the return receipt or proof of delivery, fill out the AFFIDAVIT OF LONG ARM SERVICE, which is marked “(3b – LONG ARM)” and sign it in front of a notary. Then, file that document and your proof of delivery in your case with the Clerk of Court. You must then wait one hundred eighty (180) days from the date you filed the AFFIDAVIT OF LONG ARM SERVICE and without a reconciliation before moving on to Step 7 below.

- 7. Wait the required time without reconciling and call the Clerk of Court to check the status of your case. You must live separate and apart for one hundred eighty (180) days without a reconciliation. Make sure your spouse has not filed an “Answer” or other pleading. If your spouse has filed an “Answer” to the lawsuit, check with the court to see if any hearings have been scheduled. When you call, ask the Clerk of Court staff whether you are required to file the form titled “APPENDIX 27.0A: LA. C.C.P. ART. 102 DIVORCE CHECKLIST.” Also, ask the Clerk of Court if the assigned judge requires in-court testimony and not Affidavits of Correctness.
- 8. Prepare your divorce paperwork. The next step is to complete the form marked “(4-AFFIDAVIT)” and sign it in the presence of a notary! Fill out the caption only on the RULE TO SHOW CAUSE WHY ART. 102 DIVORCE SHOULD NOT BE GRANTED marked “(5-RULE RE DIVORCE).” If the Clerk of Court told you that you do not have to fill out the “Appendix 27.0A Divorce Checklist” mentioned above, make sure you fill out the “Petitioner’s Certification” on the page marked “(7- JUDGMENT).” For the “Petitioner’s Certification,” you will need to know the date of service and whether it was domiciliary or personal service. (See LouisianaLawHelp.org/resource/understanding-service-of-process-article for definitions of domiciliary and personal service.)
 - 9a. File your Rule to Show Cause. Bring a copy and the original of: (i) the AFFIDAVIT (marked “(4-AFFIDAVIT)”), (ii) the RULE TO SHOW CAUSE WHY ART. 102 DIVORCE SHOULD NOT BE GRANTED marked “(5-RULE RE DIVORCE)”), (iii) the JUDGMENT OF 102 DIVORCE WITHOUT MINOR CHILDREN marked “(7-JUDGMENT),” and (iv) the completed Appendix 27.0A DIVORCE CHECKLIST (if necessary) to the Clerk of Court’s office. Ask the Clerk of Court to file them. Later, the court will fill out the 5-RULE RE DIVORCE setting a hearing date. You must have this document served on your spouse.
NOTE: The rule to show cause why the 102 divorce should not be granted should be filed within two years of service of the Petition on the Defendant or of the Defendant’s execution of waiver of service of the original petition. If the rule is not filed within this time, you may have to re-file a petition for divorce and pay the filing costs again.
 - 9b. If your spouse is willing to waive service of process, then ask the Clerk of Court’s office for a “certified copy” of the Rule when you file. Hand or mail your spouse the certified copy of your divorce, along with the “Waiver of Service of Rule for 102 Divorce,” which is marked “(6-WAIVER).” Your spouse must find a notary and sign the WAIVER in front of the notary’s presence, then return the waiver back to you or file it directly with the Clerk of Court. If your spouse doesn’t file it for you, then you must file the WAIVER with the Clerk of Court.
- 10. Attend your court hearing and file for your Judgment of Divorce. Be prepared to attend the hearing on the date listed in the 5-RULE RE DIVORCE. You may want to bring a copy of the JUDGMENT OF 102 DIVORCE WITHOUT MINOR CHILDREN marked “(7-JUDGMENT)” with you. The court may take testimony of the parties before ruling. Alternatively, the court may waive the appearance of the parties and issue its ruling and completing the JUDGMENT.

You are considered legally divorced as of the date your Judge has signed your JUDGMENT OF 102 DIVORCE WITHOUT MINOR CHILDREN. If you were granted “In Forma Pauperis” status, then the court should send you a certified copy of your Default Judgment of Divorce. If not, you can request one for a fee. Keep this certified copy for your records.
