

Abid Hussain is a solo law practitioner in New Orleans, with clients in Dallas. He has practiced corporate law for more 13 years in Texas and Louisiana. He provides legal and corporate counsel, including intellectual property and asset protection, to entrepreneurs, business owners, and investors, as well as musicians. He provides counsel to and sets up nonprofit organizations. During the past six years, Abid has provided multiple law technology and practice management CLEs for the Louisiana State Bar Association, the New Orleans Bar Association, and the Jefferson Bar Association. For the past three years, Abid was the Chair of the Solos and Small Firms Section of the LSBA. For the past year, Abid has served as a committee member, participating in disciplinary matters at the Louisiana Attorney Disciplinary Board.

For eight years after receiving his law degree from the University of Oregon, Abid held marketing and web development positions at technology and software companies, including small startups and giants such as Texas Instruments, before practicing as an attorney. He is a graduate of the Bronx High School of Science and holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Legal Studies from the University of California, Berkeley. Abid has also recorded and produced more than 270 songs and is currently working on his 15th album.

