

Andrea Rubin is a 2008 graduate of Loyola Law School. While in law school she served as a member of the Student Bar Association and was appointed to the Diversity Committee.

Ms. Rubin joined Loyola University New Orleans as the Assistant Director of Student Conduct and served there for 4 years. During that time she became well versed in the area of law concerning FERPA, Title IX and Student Disciplinary procedures. Ms. Rubin joined Delaney, Robb & Rubin Attorney's at Law in 2015 and practices primarily divorce law, adoptions, LGBT specific issues, and mediation.

Outside of professional pursuits, Ms. Rubin is proud to have served as a Governor on the Louisiana Human Rights Campaign steering committee and the Federal Club Co-Chair. She spends most of her free time with her wife and daughter and enjoys sailing and travel.