

Ashley Foret Dees is the owner and managing attorney at Ashley Foret Dees, LLC, where she practices immigration law in southwest Louisiana. She represents employers and individuals through the complex immigration process, and her practice includes business clients as well as individuals processing through USCIS and EOIR. Her practice includes many agricultural and seafood processing employers. She represents those businesses through the immigration processes including H-2A, H-2B, H-1B and PERM. She regularly speaks at the American Immigration Lawyers Association's (AILA) annual conferences and the AILA MidSouth Chapter conferences regarding H-2B and H-2A visas.

Mrs. Dees serves as the Louisiana State Bar's Annual Immigration Law Seminar chair and speaker and has served on the AILA National Pro Bono Committee. She currently serves as H-2 Chair on the AILA National Dept. of Labor Liaison Committee which she joined in 2016. She is also founder and chair of the Louisiana State Bar Immigration Law Section.
