

William N. King works with the LSBA Practice Assistance and Improvement Program as Professional Programs Counsel. Mr. King grew up in New Orleans, attended Jesuit High School, received his B.A. from Spring Hill College in Mobile, AL and obtained his J.D. from Tulane Law School.

From 1993 to July of 2000, he was Deputy Disciplinary Counsel with the Office of Disciplinary Counsel, where his duties involved investigating and prosecuting violations of the Rules of Professional Conduct by Louisiana licensed attorneys. He joined the staff of the Practice Assistance Program on August 1st, 2000. Mr. King's duties include mediating complaints referred to the Attorney-Client Assistance Program by the Office of Disciplinary Counsel and administering the Attorney Diversion Program including the components of diversion such as the LSBA Ethics School, Trust Accounting School, Advertising School, and Law Practice Management School. Mr. King works with the Committee on the Profession and its numerous law school programs such as the First Year Professionalism Orientations and the Character and Fitness Programs. Mr. King also works closely with the Client Assistance Fund assisting in their mission to reimburse clients for the dishonest actions of their attorneys. Mr. King works with many other LSBA Committees such as the Unauthorized Practice of Law Committee and the Rules of Professional Conduct Committee. He speaks on Ethics and Professionalism issues throughout the state. Mr. King firmly believes that Louisiana attorneys are some of the best, most professional and ethical attorneys in the country.