

Speaker Biography

Erin C. Hebert is a Senior Associate Attorney at Ware Immigration in Metairie, LA. Ware Immigration has 40 years of experience providing representation across the United States to individuals, corporations, and educational institutions seeking employment-based, family-based, and humanitarian immigration benefits. Erin has been practicing exclusively immigration law for nine years, and has 13 of experience in the immigration field. Her practice focuses on removal defense and appeals, family-based petitions, immigrant visa consular processing, crimmigration, waivers of inadmissibility, asylum, and humanitarian relief (including U Visas and self-petition relief under the Violence Against Women Act). She graduated from the University of Washington School of Law, cum laude, Order of the Barristers.