Sarah Holland Bacot is an Equal Justice Works Disaster (EJW) Resilience Fellow with Disability Rights Louisiana (DRLA), the designated protection and advocacy system for the State of Louisiana. Focused on the specific needs of individuals with disabilities, she provides legal services to folks throughout Louisiana dealing with a broad range of disaster-related issues, including housing, employment, and education. Originally from the Mississippi Gulf Coast, Sarah earned her BA from Rhodes College and her JD from Harvard Law School. After law school, she clerked for the Honorable Sheryl H. Lipman of the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Tennessee. Sarah worked as a litigation associate in Washington, D.C. before moving to New Orleans to begin her EJW Fellowship with DRLA.
