

Speaker Biography

A proud New Orleans native, Hieu "Scott" Le graduated from Rutgers Law School in Newark, New Jersey where he was honored with the Kinoy-Stavis Public Interest Fellowship and served as a student-attorney for the Rutgers Law School Constitutional Rights Clinic, gaining experience with matters dealing with violations of constitutional rights and civil liberties. During his time in New Jersey and New York City, Hieu "Scott" gained experience in civil rights advocacy, foreclosure defense, consumer fraud litigation, labor disputes, and health care-related benefits hearings. Upon moving back to New Orleans, Hieu "Scott" had primarily handled matters ranging from plaintiff-side personal injury claims to contract disputes and municipal-level criminal defense before joining Mouledoux, Bland, Legrand & Brackett, LLC, where his practice include the defense of employers and insurance carriers for claims arising under the Louisiana Workers' Compensation Act, Longshore and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act, Defense Base Act, and War Hazards Compensation Act. Hieu "Scott" is a member of the LSBA LGBT Subcommittee and serves as the Secretary of the Vietnamese American Bar Association and is an E-board member of the New Orleans Pride Center.