

Speaker Biography

Vickie Sokol Evans is a globally recognized digital productivity instructor and comedic speaker who trains professionals on how to turn hours of work into just a few clicks by using more of their technology. Her experience as a legal assistant and law firm technology instructor inspired her passion for automating and streamlining deliverables.

A Microsoft Certified Trainer with over 25 certifications and over 20 years' training experience on PC and Mac platforms, Vickie is founder of The Red Cape Company headquartered in Austin, Texas. Her clients include Microsoft, The Gates Foundation, Stanford University, The New York Times, Starbucks, Amazon, UK's Parliament, and most notably Bill Gates' team, among many others. She is the author of the bestselling book "100 Life-Changing Tips using Microsoft Office."