Wayne J. Lee is a Member of Stone Pigman Walther Wittmann L.L.C. and is a trial lawyer with more than 40 years of complex litigation experience. He focuses his practice on insurance and insurance class action lawsuits. He assists clients with legal matters such as coverage issues, bad faith claims, mold claims, regulatory issues and class action claims with a myriad of substantive issues.

Throughout his career, he has successfully represented numerous insurance companies in class action lawsuits that alleged improper handling of claims. He is a Past President of the Louisiana State Bar Association and served on the Board of Governors. Wayne is also a member of many other professional organizations including the American Bar Association, Board of Administrators of Tulane Educational Fund, Litigation Counsel of America, Tulane University Inn of Court, and the Louis A. Martinet Society, among others. Among others, he has served as a member of the ABA Commission on Race and Ethnic Diversity in the Profession (2004-06) and is a member and former chair of the LSBA Standing Committee on Diversity in the Profession.

Wayne received his law degree in 1974 from Tulane University Law School, where he was chosen to the Order of the Coif and was a member of the Tulane Law Review Board of Editors, 1972-74. He received his undergraduate degree from Tulane in 1971.
