

J. Dalton Courson

Conclave Co-chair

Disability Rights Louisiana

New Orleans, LA

J. Dalton Courson is Litigation Director with Disability Rights Louisiana, a nonprofit agency that protects and advocates for the human and legal rights of people with disabilities of all ages across Louisiana. Before joining Disability Rights Louisiana earlier this year, Courson was a member of Stone Pigman Walther Wittmann LLC in New Orleans, where his practice focused on commercial litigation. He also serves as a co-chair of the Louisiana State Bar Association (LSBA) Diversity Committee and of the Access to Justice Committee of the American Bar Association's Section of Litigation. He is an adjunct professor at Loyola University College of Law, where he teaches a constitutional law seminar focusing on LGBTQ legal issues. Courson was awarded the 2013 Human Rights Award and the 2015 Trailblazer Award from the LSBA for his efforts in promoting diversity in the legal profession.
