

Erinn D. Martin serves as Policy Counsel for the Public Policy Project at the Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights Under Law where she advocates for the advancement and protection of civil rights at the federal level.

Prior to joining the Lawyers' Committee, she was a Staff Attorney in the Lawyers Network at the Center for Reproductive Rights. She has also served at the U.S. Department of Justice, where her work focused on consumer protection and appellate civil rights matters. While at DOJ, Ms. Martin was part of a trial team that won a landmark telemarketing civil penalty. She began her legal career as a legal fellow for the National Center for Law and Economic Justice.

Ms. Martin received her J.D. from New York University School of Law, where she was a Frank J. Guarini Leaders in Government Service Scholar and a student advocate in the Brennan Center for Justice Public Policy Advocacy Clinic. She holds a B.A. from the University of Maryland and a M.S. Ed. from the University of Pennsylvania. She currently serves as President-Elect of the Greater Washington Area Chapter (GWAC), Women Lawyers Division of the National Bar Association.