

Jonathan Mehta Stein is a civil rights attorney and long-time democracy reform advocate. He is the Executive Director of the nonprofit organization California Common Cause, which works to build a better and more inclusive California democracy. Previously, Mr. Stein spent four years as the head of the Voting Rights & Census Program at Asian Americans Advancing Justice - Asian Law Caucus, where his work was centered around increasing access to democracy for immigrant communities, limited-English speakers, and other historically disenfranchised communities. He also worked as a voting rights staff attorney for the ACLU of California and was the Chair of the City of Oakland Public Ethics Commission. He is from the San Francisco Bay Area.
