

Danielle L. Borel

Danielle L. Borel is a commercial litigation and healthcare litigation associate in the Baton Rouge office of Breazeale, Sachse & Wilson, L.L.P. She received a BS degree, magna cum laude, in 2011 from Louisiana State University and her JD degree, magna cum laude, in 2014 from LSU Paul M. Hebert Law Center (Louisiana Law Review, 2012-14; Order of the Coif). She was admitted to practice in Louisiana in 2014.

Borel is the American Bar Association/Young Lawyers Division (ABA/YLD) representative on the Louisiana State Bar Association's Young Lawyers Division Council.

She is a member of the ABA Health Law Section. She was recognized as an Emerging Young Lawyer in Healthcare by the ABA Health Law Section in March 2019 and as an ABA Young Lawyers Division Star of the Quarter in spring and fall 2017. She also is a member of the Louisiana Hospital Association and has participated in the Baton Rouge Bar Association's Holiday Star Program.

In her community, she is a member of the board of directors and chairs the advisory board for Lighthouse Louisiana. She was twice recognized with the Lighthouse Louisiana Door Knocker Award for her service. She also volunteers for PulseBR (American Heart Association).

Borel and her husband, Nathan Judice, have been married for eight years.