

LIFT INCUBATOR DOMESTIC VIOLENCE PROJECT ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS

This 12-month program is designed to equip lawyers with the knowledge and skills necessary to build sustainable law firms while simultaneously addressing unmet legal needs in Louisiana. Operated in partnership with Southeast Louisiana Legal Services (SLLS), participating attorneys in this project will work to meet the civil legal needs of domestic violence victims – namely, family law matters – in Orleans, Terrebonne, and Lafourche.

Benefits of the Program: Attorneys in LIFT receive mentorship, personal coaching, training and CLEs as well as free access to case management software and legal research programs. The LIFT Program provides participants with hands-on training through legal representation on pro bono cases referred by SLLS, for which they will receive a $10,000 stipend.

Parishes Covered and Types of Cases: The parishes included in this project are Orleans, Terrebonne, and Lafourche. Candidates must be willing to accept cases from all three parishes. Case types will include but not limited to protective orders, divorce, child custody, and other family law matters.

Who Should Apply: Louisiana licensed attorneys starting their own solo, small firm, or nonprofit practice with an entrepreneurial spirit and commitment to serving survivors of domestic violence. Applications are available here. More information about LIFT can be found at www.lsba.org/LIFT. Questions about the program and application process should be directed to Amy Duncan at amy.duncan@lsba.org.

Louisiana State Bar Association LIFT Domestic Violence Project

Application

Legal Innovators for Tomorrow (LIFT) is a legal incubator program designed to address the legal needs of underserved and underrepresented communities by supporting new lawyers build viable and sustainable public interest focused law firms. Through a collaborative partnership with Southeast Louisiana Legal Services, the LSBA LIFT program is offering two attorneys the opportunity to participate in this Project to address the unmet civil legal needs of domestic violence survivors.

The LIFT Incubator Project is for new or transitioning attorneys starting their own solo, small firm, or nonprofit practice. During the 12-month program, participating attorneys receive training, access to free resources such as case management software and legal research programs, and mentorship as they work alongside experienced SLLS legal practitioners. In exchange for the training and incubation of their practice, attorneys will agree to provide pro bono representation to domestic violence victims for which they will receive a $10,000 stipend.

Louisiana licensed attorneys with 0-7 years practice experience who plan to develop or have begun to develop a solo or small law practice and are committed to providing legal representation to survivors of domestic violence are encouraged to apply. Applications are currently being accepted. Please send your completed applications in one pdf file to Amy Duncan at amy.duncan@lsba.org.
