|---------------|---------------------|

A member may request approval of an out-of-state CLE activity if the sponsor does not apply for approval (Regulations/Rule 4.5.1). The application must include a sample brochure or course outline that describes the course content, identifies the instructors and their credentials, lists the time devoted to each topic, and shows the date and location listed on the application. A $20.00 non-refundable application fee, payable to the Louisiana State Bar Association, and a certificate of attendance or completion of the course must also be enclosed.

In addition:

- Applications for technology driven courses must include provider verification of interactivity and attendance records. (Regulations/Rule 3.2(a))
- Applications for courses by law firms or corporate law departments must provide proof of outside advertisement in a venue similar to the MCLE Calendar. (Regulations/Rule 3.14)

Out-of-state filings must be received in the MCLE office by January 31 following the compliance term end. Failure to file timely will result in a $150 delinquency penalty (Rule 6(c)). Repeat penalties may also apply.

For questions regarding the completion of this application form or pertaining to any of the MCLE requirements in Louisiana, please contact the MCLE Department. Toll free: (800) 421-5722; in New Orleans: (504) 566-1600; via e-mail: mcle@lsba.org; or access our website: www.lsba.org/mcle

Is the activity primarily designed for and targeted to attorneys? YES  NO  If "NO", describe in sufficient detail how this activity would provide continuing legal education to attorneys: _____

CREDIT HOURS: To calculate the number of credit hours, enter the total number of minutes of instruction and divide by 60. Time devoted to introductory remarks, breaks or meetings does not qualify for CLE credit. In order to qualify for ethics, professionalism, or law office management, a segment must be devoted specifically to that topic and specified as such. These credits should be counted in the course's total credits.
