

“Yet She is Advancing”

The 19th Amendment, New Orleans Women and the Right to Vote, 1878-1970

“Yet She is Advancing”: The 19th Amendment, New Orleans Women and the Right to Vote, 1878-1970, by The Historic New Orleans Collection curator, Dr. Libby Neidenbach, will focus on the local women’s suffrage movement and highlight local African American women’s fight for access to the ballot.

A panel discussion will follow with civil rights activist and former First Lady of New Orleans, Sybil Haydel Morial, daughter of civil rights activist Rosa Keller and former official with the Moon Landrieu administration, Mary Keller Zervigon, and Dr. Neidenbach. The panel discussion will be moderated by the Honorable Nannette Jolivet Brown, Chief Judge for the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana.

WHEN

TUESDAY
AUGUST 18
10:00-11:30 AM

VIRTUAL PRESENTATION VIA ZOOM WEBINAR

1.5 HOURS OF CLE CREDIT
NO REGISTRATION FEE

The following organizations participated in the planning of this event:

*GNO Louis A. Martinet Legal Society
Association for Women Attorneys
Louisiana State Bar Association
Federal Bar Association
New Orleans Bar Association
United States District Court, EDLA*

Please pre-register by emailing WomensVote@laed.uscourts.gov