

January 18, 2022

RE: LBLs Employment Law and Labor Law Specializations

Dear Counsel:

The Louisiana Board of Legal Specialization (“LBLS” or “Board”) is looking for interested bar members who would be willing to serve on the Labor Law Advisory Commission. There are currently vacancies on the Labor Law Advisory Commission. The advisory commission is composed of nine (9) members who actively administer the program in Labor Law in cooperation with and under the general policy guidance of the Louisiana Board of Legal Specialization. LSBA Plan of Legal Specialization 2017.pdf. The Board appoints the members of the Advisory Commission for a three-year term. There are usually two meetings a year – either in person or a virtual meeting. Your participation would be purely voluntary as the Louisiana Board of Legal Specialization is not permitted to compensate its members. If you are interested in serving on the Labor Law Advisory Commission, please email your CV at your earliest convenience and not later than February 8, 2022, to Specialization Director Mary Ann Wegmann.

Just a reminder that the LBLS is accepting applications in Labor Law and Employment Law specializations through February 28, 2022. The LSBA House of Delegates and Board of Governors approved revised Employment Law Standards and Labor Law Standards at their annual meeting in June 2021. The revised Employment Law Standards and Labor Law Standards may be viewed on the LBLS website at Employment Law \(lsba.org\) and Labor Law \(lsba.org\). Please contact Specialization Director Mary Ann Wegmann at maryann.wegmann@lsba.org, or 504-619-0128, for more information, and/or if you are interested in receiving an application packet in Employment Law and/or Labor Law specializations.

I look forward to working with you in this endeavor.

Very truly yours,

Bernadette R. Lee
2021-2022 Chair
Louisiana Board of Legal Specialization