

May 2, 2023

RE: LBLs Labor Law Specialization and Employment Law Specialization

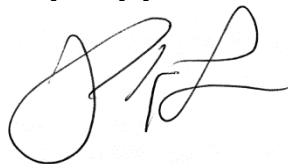

Dear Counsel:

The Louisiana Board of Legal Specialization (“LBLS” or “Board”) is looking for interested members of the Louisiana State Bar Association who would be willing to serve on the 2023-2024 Labor Law Advisory Commission. The terms start on July 1, 2023 and are staggered up to three years in duration. RulesRegulationsofLegalSpecialization.pdf \(lsba.org\). The advisory commission is composed of up to nine (9) members who actively administer the programs in Labor Law in cooperation with and under the general policy guidance of the Louisiana Board of Legal Specialization. LSBAPlanofLegalspecialization2017.pdf. There are usually two meetings a year – either in person or a virtual meeting. Your participation would be purely voluntary as the Louisiana Board of Legal Specialization is not permitted to compensate its members. If you are interested in serving on the Labor Law Advisory Commission, please email your Curriculum Vitae (“CV”) at your earliest convenience and not later than May 19, 2023, to Specialization Director Mary Ann Wegmann. If you have previously applied for a position on either the Employment Law and/or Labor Law Advisory Commissions, kindly advise if you would be interested in serving on the Labor Law Advisory Commission.

The 2024 application period for Employment Law and Labor Law certifications will commence on November 1, 2023 and run through February 28, 2024. Please contact Specialization Director Mary Ann Wegmann at maryann.wegmann@lsba.org, or 504-619-0128, for more information, or if you would like to receive a 2024 application packet in Employment Law and/or Labor Law specializations.

I look forward to working with you in this endeavor.

Very truly yours,

Richard K. Leefe
2022-2023 Chair
Louisiana Board of Legal Specialization